A fine watch will be given away at the Circus this evening. Each visitor to the big tent will be given a chance.

Joseph Conradt of Honolulu is engaged to Miss Annie Holmes of Kohala. Both are well known young island people.

There was a full turnout and a spirited rehearsal of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra last evening. Wray Taylor was in charge.

Companies B and D will shoot a practise match at Kakaako tomorrow afternoon. D gives B a handicap of 20 points.

Meeting of German Benevolent Association at 10 a. m. tomorrow is for the purpose of closing up the business of the old year.

During the matinee performance at the circus tomorrow afternoon children will be admitted to any part of the tent for 25 cents.

It should be stated that the Amateur concert next Tuesday evening will be "for the benefit of the piano" in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

A party of young men of Honolulu are arranging to attend the Trans-Mississippi Congress, which meets at Omaha, Neb., next summer.

Tennis players are invited to call and examine the elegant line of Genuine English made tennis rackets at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

Miss Frederica, of the circus, who has learned to ride astride of a horse, will introduce the style in Australia on her return to that country.

When your bicycle needs attention, don't forget that Pearson & Hobron, 312 Fort street, turn out the best work of any shop in Honolulu.

On account of the continued rough weather on the Koolau coast the J. A. Cummins will remain in port until Monday having some needed overhauling.

Fred Matthews, the sick puer of the Mauna Loa, is at Dr Rowat's place at Napoopoo. He was somewhat better when the Mauna Loa left there.

Before buying elsewhere call in at Schuman's carriage and harness house, Fort street, next to Club Stables, and see the fine line of buggies, phaetons, surreys and harness. He guarantees to sell you a better article, for less money, than any other place in town can furnish. See his ad.

George J. Campbell, superintendent of the Molokai ranch, expected to catch the Mauna Loa at Kaunakakai this morning but this time she was a ship that passed in the night.

Dr. A. E. Ingersoll, who brought down a quantity of fruit on a sailing vessel and attempted to sell the same without a license, was fined $25 and costs by Judge Wilcox this morning.

The C. D. Bryant is expected to bring the next news from the Coast. She was to leave three days after the Castle, and if she has anything like the Castle's good luck may be in port at any time.

THE CIRCUS.

Change of Program Last Night was a Great One.

While Harry Dixon is far and away the most dashing ring horseman ever seen here, the ladies of Willison's circus have not been surpassed for graceful equestrianism. Elsie St. Leon is one of the youngest stars in this line.

Last night's program was a great one. The full company's club swinging, that finished with flaming clubs, was loudly applauded. Silly Silven's giraffe caused uproarious mirth, while the pony chasing "Peanuts" made no end of fun. The dogs and baboon were seen in new tricks. It was a show without any dull or slow features.

At the "elite" performance tonight a handsome watch will be given away.
